ANOTHER ECHO OF BANK CRASH

Exception to Be Taken to the Report of Commissioner Brumback.

NEWS NOTES OF ALEXANDRIA

Alexandria. Va., Nov. IZ—Another ceibo of the failure of the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation will be heard Friday next in Richmond before Judge Ecott, of the Circuit Court for that city, when the exceptions to the region of Special Commissioner R. D. Brumback will be considered researching the distribution of 81250 held by the trust company with the insurance department of the trust company as a guarantee of surety bonds. With the failure of the concern claims aggregating $1.00 regarded as preferred were presented, and they follow. Bickwer estate, Charlottewithe, $18,000; Thomas W. Rodhom, city treasurer of Alexandria, History, and the sure presented, and they follow. Bickwer estate, Charlottewithe, $18,000; Thomas W. Rodhom, city treasurer of Alexandria, History, and the sure presented and they following altorystys will appear before Judge Scott in the interest of the various claimants; $2.00. Brent, commonwealth of Virginia, Harmon and Waish, Charlottextile; and $2.00 Michael Building and Loan Association has filed exceptions through Attorney Douglas Stuart, receiver.

A delegation of members of the Eagles from Washington to-night attended the benant given by Alva Aerie, No. 30, Fra-ternal Order of Eagles, at Armory Hall. The local Eagles, headed by a band, pa-raded the streets to-night.

ABE MARTIN SAYS:

Foreign Gossip.

Attache" (Springelds, Ill.) desires of the province of the production of the producti

A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

THE NEW MEN'S WEAR SHOP

G Street-Two Doors East of Eleventh.

$1.15 for $1.50 Shirts

$1.50 are as good as other makes of $2.00 Shirts. Advertising them for to-day—making the price $1.15 instead of $1.50. Please note—$1.15 for this day only.

Only 25c for the new styles of 50c Four-in-hand Scarfs, pure silk. Such bargains are pos-sible because the New Shop has contracted to use up all the remain-ing pieces of silk left over after the maker has has supplied his trade.

25c for 50c Scarfs

THE PALAIS ROYAL

A. LISNER.

CLOSE 6 P. M.

G STREET.

Splendid Features in SUNDAY'S EDITION The Washington Herald

MAGAZINE SECTION—Articles by Jane Addams and other leading women writers: C. S. Maddocks, Charles Tobenkin, and Charles Cristadoro and others interested in men who work with hand or brain; attractive embroidery designs; beautifully illustrated page devoted to Jaces and furs for winter's fashions: Marion Harland's delightful talks on Common Sense in the Home, with menus for a week; continuation of the absorbing serial, the "Minister of Police;" a selected short story, "From Alpha to Omega," by Herbert Quick; Kate Carew's piquant interview: May Manton's fashions, illintrated so any woman can understand; with special features by Col. Morrow, Rene Bache, and others.

SOCIETY AND DRAMA SECTION-Accurate account of the doings in the social world, not only of Washington, but of its suburbs: latest gossip and happenings of interest to musicians: Mrs. Manz's attractive woman's page; secret societies and their doings; drama and what is going on in stageland: A. D. Jacobson's review of the latest literary productions, and many other special features by some of the brightest newspaper writers in Washington.

NEWS SECTION-The world is thoroughly combed by press services and special correspondents; photographs from famous studios for illustrating different stories; the latest Balkan war news; fearless editorial comment on pertinent subjects: 1. A. Fleming's financial comment and business review for the week; business announcements of Washington merchants presented in an attractive form, with all the latest local happenings,

SPORTING SECTION.

Yale-Harvard Football Game-The best football writer- in the country will report the only real big game of the year, Yale vs. Harvard, for The Washington Herald. With the Bowlers-Bowling is now at its height. Al Machler's gossip and comment in the Sunday pink section will be the best in Washington. All-High School Football Eleven-Charles W. Swan, assistant sporting editor of The Herald, will present his annual all-high school footeleven for 1912. Trotter and Pacer-Mr. L. D. Sale will have two columns of up-to-date trotting gossip. Other Sports-Every branch of sport will be given generous space in the Sunday edition of The Washington Fierald.

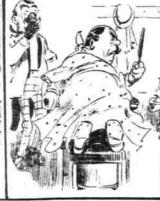

By James Montgomery Flagg

Nervy Nat-There may be a chance for a sit of fun in this thing. I will apply for the position. I hereby sol-emaly promise myself that it will not be called work.

The Boss Barber-This is Officer O'Toole. If you give him satisfaction I'll engage you.

Nervy Nat-Very well, sir. (Aside.) My old seemy, O'Toole. I will do a 'llt- be sardening on his golf links that will make Central Park look like an empty let.

Officer O Toeles-Glive me a hair trim on a share, an work also. Office gold to take a sap, as Ol didn't shlape bit th hours itself noise. Nervy Nat-I'll be as quiet as a burstar, so take your beauty map. Glory be to Mme. Yale, you need it.

Nervy Nat-Half of his hair and half of his mustache gone. He will be a sweet-looking object when I'm min-bed. All the nurse girls and cooks on his heat will give him the congested dispersion.